

STOP COMPLAINING ABOUT YOUR PARENTS

I had two children, but I aborted them. Their lives were not compatible with my lifestyle. I regret it and wish I hadn't, but I did.

Your parents could have done the same. Instead, they gave you the greatest gift of all: the gift of life. They sacrificed for you because your life meant more to them than their lifestyles. Never forget it.